

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

Reservia

A97.21
Ex82

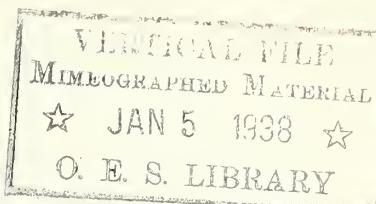

UNITED STATES
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
LIBRARY

Reserve
BOOK NUMBER
A97.21
Ex82
871160

Library
3 NOTES ON USING HERBS IN LANDSCAPING
Compiled by Miriam Birdseye

874200

Borders

		Height:
Low	Chives	6"	(perennial)
	Thymes - French, English, lemon, decorative varieties	6"-1'	(perennial)
	Winter savory	1'	(perennial)
	Dwarf basil - purple, green	8"	(annual)
	Santolina (lavender cotton)	1½"	(perennial)
	Parsley	18"	(biennial)
Tall	Hyssop - Blue, pink, white	2"	(perennial) Foliage stays green well into winter.
	Southernwood	2'	(perennial) Fine cut gray foliage.
	Sage, English	2'-2½'	(perennial)

"Knots" Combine clipped santolina (gray), hyssop (dark green), and feverfew (yellowish).

Backgrounds

Bergamot: rose, mauve, white	2'-3'	(perennial)
Borage: blue and white; gray, hairy leaves.	18"	(perennial)
Clary sage	3"	(biennial)
Valerian	4'	(perennial)

Ground covers

Camomile, winter savory, thymes (for sun)		(perennial)
Sweet Woodruff and Spurge (pachysandra terminalis) (for shady spots under trees)		(perennial)
Creeping mints - (for damp spots)		(perennial)

Between flagstones

Prostrate thymes

In walls

Thymes, winter savory

Against sunny walls

Lavender (not hardy in north)
Sage	2' (perennial)

